ORDER

Counsel appearing for the petitioner fairly points out that the questions raised for consideration in these petitions are squarely covered by the decision of the ~~honble~~ Supreme Court in the case of 'Vikas Sales Corporation and Another Vs. Commissioner of Commercial Taxes and Another' ((1996) 102 STC 106). He submits that in the light of the said decision, nothing further survives for consideration in these writ petitions. These petitions be dismissed as such. Ordered accordingly. No costs.

2. The dismissal of these writ petitions shall not however prevent the petitioner from filing an appropriate application before the State Government in terms of Sec.20A of the Karnataka Sales Tax Rules, 1957 for payment of tax amount in instalments. In case any such application is filed within 4 weeks from today, the Government shall consider the same on its merits as though the application has been made within the time prescribed.
